

Not All Cemeteries Are Created Equal.

Pet cemeteries have been around for hundreds of years. The oldest pet cemetery in United States dates back to 1896. It is home to over 80,000 interments, not to mention 7,000 pet memorials. This cemetery, along with many other pet cemeteries offer perpetual care services, along with their other service and merchandise offering. From a high level viewpoint, on many levels function very similar to human cemeteries. In fact, even from an ownership and structure standpoint many mirror the human world. What's ironic, is that there are law on the human side, however, on the pet side, it's grey to none. In this session, we will discuss best practices for cemetery perpetual care and pet pre-planning trusts to protect and minimize risk exposure for your cemetery in an unregulated environment
